Message from the President: Praise the Lord for a Fruitful October!

Nathan Cline, LCN President shares some updates after a busy month of October at LCN. Refuel 2023 took place on October 16 and 17. Over 1500 pastors joined us in Lynchburg for a time of teaching and encouragement, prayer and fellowship. Last month, we also celebrated the inauguration of Liberty University's new president, Dondi Costin. President Costin also joined the LCN leadership board. We are thankful for the many ways God moved last month and look forward to great things in the coming months.

Liberty University Inaugurates President Dondi Costin

Liberty University celebrated the inauguration of President Dondi Costin on Friday, October 27, 2023. President Costin challenged the audience to continue sending forth Champions for Christ, saying “God has called us to make a difference in this world, and from this mountain we Train Champions for Christ who will not stay on this mountain but will go down the mountain and serve every single mountain of influence and valley in between.” He also pledged to be a “minder of the mission, the “keeper of the culture”, and the “steward of the strategy.” He closed his remarks by reminding everyone that “there is only one King of the hill on this mountain, and His name is Jesus.”

Do Your Job!

Jim Copenhaver of Now Church and the LCN Local Center in Orrville, Ohio, challenges pastors and leaders to do your one job. What is that one job? To make disciples for Jesus. It is easy to get distracted in life and in ministry. We need to focus on the one task God has entrusted to us: make disciples who make disciples.

The Power of Prayer

Johnny Ocegüera of Victory Baptist Church and the LCN Local Center in Mocksville, North Carolina, share about the power of prayer. He and his fellow Local Center members have focused on prayer as the first step in making disciples. It is amazing to see God work through his people when they first seek him.

If you would like to join or start a Local Center in our area, you can find more information here.
