Making Disciples Through the Next Generation

Message from the President: LCN's Disciple-Making Cohort

LCN President Nathan Cline reflects on God's many blessings in 2023 and looks forward to great things in 2024. LCN launched its first disciple-making cohort last year, where leaders from 20 churches met regularly to learn and share how to teach first-time believers to make new disciples. This is not a one-size-fits-all model. Instead, each leader learned how to apply principles and strategies to best fit their context. We are excited to launch a second cohort in 2024 and we hope you will join us. Stay tuned for details.

Making Disciples Through the Next Generation

AJ Runkles of Harmony Church of Avon and the LCN Local Center in Avon, Indiana, reminds pastors of the importance of investing in the next generation. Jesus told his disciples to “let the little children come to me.” We need to be the types of pastors and leaders who point the next generation to faith in Jesus. What an honor and privilege it is to serve the next generation by making disciples who make disciples.
