Refuel One Day: Sign Up to Be Encouraged

If you've been carrying the weight of ministry and need a moment to step back and be encouraged, Refuel One Day is for you.

This isn't a conference—it's a space to be refreshed, connect with other pastors, and be reminded you're not doing this alone.

If you're ready to step away for a few hours and be poured into, we'd love to have you join us.

Disciple Making Cohort: Take the Next Step in Disciple Making

If you've been wanting to move from simply talking about disciple-making to actually building a clear, effective pathway in your church, the Liberty Church Network Disciple Making Cohort is designed with you in mind.

This 8-month experience is more than just learning—it's about putting a plan into action with the support of coaches and leaders who are actively doing the work. You'll be encouraged, challenged, and equipped alongside other pastors who share the same heart to make disciples in their unique context.

If you're ready to take that next step and create lasting impact in your church, now is the time.

Applications are open through May 30, 2026!

LCN Local Centers: You Don't Have to Lead Alone

LCN Local Centers create a consistent space for pastors to gather each month for encouragement, prayer, and real connection. It's a simple but meaningful rhythm— leaders coming together to share experiences, support one another, and have honest conversations about making disciples in today's ministry context.

We're already seeing that impact grow. This month, Jeff Frye met with a new group of pastors in Gloucester, Virginia for their very first Local Center gathering. What started as one meeting is now the beginning of ongoing relationships, encouragement, and shared ministry in that region.

If you're looking for that kind of connection, Local Centers are open and free to join.

Liberty Baptist Fellowship: Supporting Chaplain in Every Season of Ministry

The Liberty Baptist Fellowship (LBF) is committed to providing both endorsement and pastoral care for chaplains serving across a wide range of ministry settings.

From the military and healthcare systems to hospice care, prisons, public safety, athletics, community outreach, and corporate environments, LBF supports those who are faithfully ministering beyond the walls of the local church.

Chaplains can be endorsed through LBF in a variety of capacities, including full-time, part-time, or volunteer roles-making it accessible for those serving in many different seasons and callings.

LBF's roots trace back to 1981, when it was originally established as the Liberty Baptist Fellowship for Church Planting under the leadership of Jerry Falwell. Since then, it has continued to grow and expand its impact, equipping and caring for chaplains across the country and beyond.

If you'd like to learn more about chaplain endorsement or explore how LBF can support you or someone you know, visit their website.

Liberty University Scholarships: Invest in Your Calling-Without Carrying the Cost Alone

What would it look like to take the next step in your education while continuing to faithfully serve in ministry? Through Liberty Church Network, that opportunity is closer than you might think.

One of the most impactful benefits of being part of LCN is the investment in your team's growth. Through a partnership with Liberty University, LCN member churches receive two 50% tuition scholarships to Liberty Theological Seminary-making it significantly more accessible for pastors and staff to pursue a master's or doctoral degree while staying fully engaged in ministry.

This isn't just about education-it's about developing leaders within your church. Whether it's you or someone on your team, LTS provides a practical pathway to grow theologically, strengthen your ministry, and continue making disciples where God has placed you.

If you've been thinking about developing your staff or taking that next step yourself, this is one of the clearest ways to do it.
